CRCNA 39 Administrative Committee Reports:

- Chair: Kevin:

Good morning, Committee. I have been dead to the world for the last couple of weeks. Worst Christmas/Ney Years ever. I definitely was not productive in bed. But the holidays are over, I am on the mend, and it is time to get to work. I have a lot to catch up on and will be working on reviewing last year's work to better serve this committee.

I met with Dan and 38/39 Hotel Chairs at the hotel to wrap up CRCNA 38. The meeting went well, everyone was very happy. The hotel is looking into several ways they can accommodate us better next year now that they know what we need. The Relationship seems very good.

I just got into Google Groups and started looking around. More will be done to get me into what I need to. I will need to get with Region Treasure to get on the bank account. Everyone transitioning with region needs to do the same so I will see what their schedule is.

I happen to know Programs met because it was in my house. For any other subcommittee meetings done with zoom, send me an invite and I will make an effort to go. I know I don't need to go to all, but I am happy to go some.

- Vice Chair: Matt – No formal report at this time and offered help and support to anyone if needed.
- Treasurer: Karen B. (Needs voted in by Region) Region is on the 19th, and she will be attending on the 19th to be voted in. Needs to get with Ricky and transfer over the previous treasurer tasks. Has a potential vice treasurer interested in the position.
- Vice Treasurer: OPEN
- Secretary: Jasmine – Will send out a reminder to CRCNA committee a week ahead of time to remind the committee of monthly meeting

CRCNA 39 Subcommittee Reports/Elections:

- Registration Chair: Mari – Verbal report given
- Hotels & Hospitality Chair: Jen S. – CRCNA H&H
 - Matt, Dan, Kevin, Jen - met with Susanna at hotel on 12/17.
 - I will go in the new year to view a possible new Hospitality room closer to the convention space and that we can have a block of rooms around to minimize noise complaints.
 - We will have a better plan in place for Saturday speaker meeting and parking, so that we do not take all of hotel's parking.
 - They are discussing having market open later next year to serve our coffee intake
 - We will find out in January or February if we will get the atrium space next year, if so, we can plan more events in there and or have registration in that location

- Fundraising & Entertainment Chair: Jules – Verbal report given
- Merchandise Chair: OPEN
- Program Chair: Tina W. – Not in attendance will follow up on a report
- Convention Information & Website Chair: Dan B. – Hello CRCNA 39!

I have been busy the last month. I feel good about my progress. Everything that I've started working on has been as difficult as I expected it to be. In the process of trying to get access to all the necessary accounts I encountered 2 step verification and password verification problems that required me to network with addicts all over the state. I got with the last web servant on 2 zoom calls and multiple texts. I've had to log in and send password resets so many times that I think I might have memorized it by heart. However, I am sure the next time I try I will encounter a hang up. That is enough whining out of me!

I hope that everyone has been able to get logged into their web email accounts @nacolorado.org. If you are not signed in and you need help, we can get it done anytime. If you would like we can work on it after today's meeting. These email accounts need to be used. If an addict goes to the website with a desire to get info or get involved, they are led to these email addresses. I would encourage all correspondence for your commitment be done thru nacolorado.org. If you are receiving correspondence thru both your personal email address and the nacolorado address I have found that it is extremely easy to lose track of which email account, it was sent from.

Sage assisted me with cleaning up the google drive. We created a new folder for this year and folders for every subcommittee. Inside these folders are the basic files you will need to move forward this year. There is an updated timeline that reflects changes that were made to the guidelines throughout the previous year. The financial forms you will need are in there. The 2023 Guidelines are also in there. If you need help getting into these files, please contact me.

I got a lot done on the website. It has been a bit of a learning curve for me. I felt overwhelmed by WordPress. There are so many tools on the application that really make it seem complicated. My first zoom with Grant went well. However, when I sat down to start updating the website, I could not remember what we discussed. I scheduled another zoom meeting and got a lot figured out. Turns out I was complicating things. I have changed all pages to a new year and a simple beginning. If you get a chance, please peruse the website, and let me know if you see anything that could be improved or added.

I have also looked at the CRCNAinfo Facebook page. Currently Kathleen L. has been moderating it. I will be keeping an eye on it this year and using it more actively to promote our convention this year.

Thank you for letting me be of service!

- Print & Display Chair: Sage B. – Hello CRCNA committee! I worked on the flyers for the theme & logo contest and the call for speakers. They are attached. Let me know if you spot an error or something you think should be changed. Otherwise, we can get these posted to the CRCNA website and they can be attached to the secretary's email along with the minutes.

ILS,

Sage B.

- Hospitals & Institutions Chair: Brandi J. – No report at this time

Other Business / Final Discussions

- Upcoming schedule, items due

Add into the agenda to talk about the schedule at the end of every meeting to ensure we are staying on track month to month.

Kevin W brought up utilizing a GANNT chart to maintain hard deadlines and the timeline and can potentially help next year's committee stay on track with deadlines.

Brandi J brought up the point that it may overcomplicate the process for future committees, and it could deter people from service.

Kevin W will continue to toy with it and see if he comes up with an easier process for timelines and deadlines.

Next Meeting: February 8th, 2025 9am – Zoom
