Merchandise – Dennis C.

Hey All,

Good news, the Merchandise Sub Committee has put together and decided on the items to go into the online store.

We spent a lot of time & deliberation on these items. Love my Sub Committee with the dedication and knowledge they put forth not only to the online store but also working on & selling pre convention merchandise. Hopefully with the help of Danny B, this 1G guy living in the 5G world will be able to put the mock ups on the screen for all to exhibit. We will also have the online store up and running in a few days.

However, not to put a damper on all of this I must express great disappointment in how the few within our CRCNA XL Committee, went outside of this body to voice complaints about the Merchandise Committee. It was even taken to Area by an individual to express to those members they need to attend this function today to see what was going on here. Much to my surprise I received many calls of support over a very few negative ones. Had they taken the time of a 5 minute call to myself, Tiffany, or any of the Sub Committee they would have learned it had been addressed and taken care of. It has always been passed on to me from my predecessors; service should always be done in the spirit of unity. You see, the greatest thing expressed in NA is the love we share between us.

ILS

Denny C.

- Online store will be up and running in a couple days
- There was a discussion on selling women's underwear with the saying "More will be revealed", several individuals from the fellowship showed up to express their concerns on how the CRCNA XL committee would be perceived, if this could be seen as sexualizing women or how NA would be perceived as a whole.
- The Merchandise Committee decided to remove the saying "More will be revealed" and just put the logo on the underwear.
